

Responsible investment survey results

Age of respondents

Type of member

What level of understanding do you have of 'Responsible Investment'?

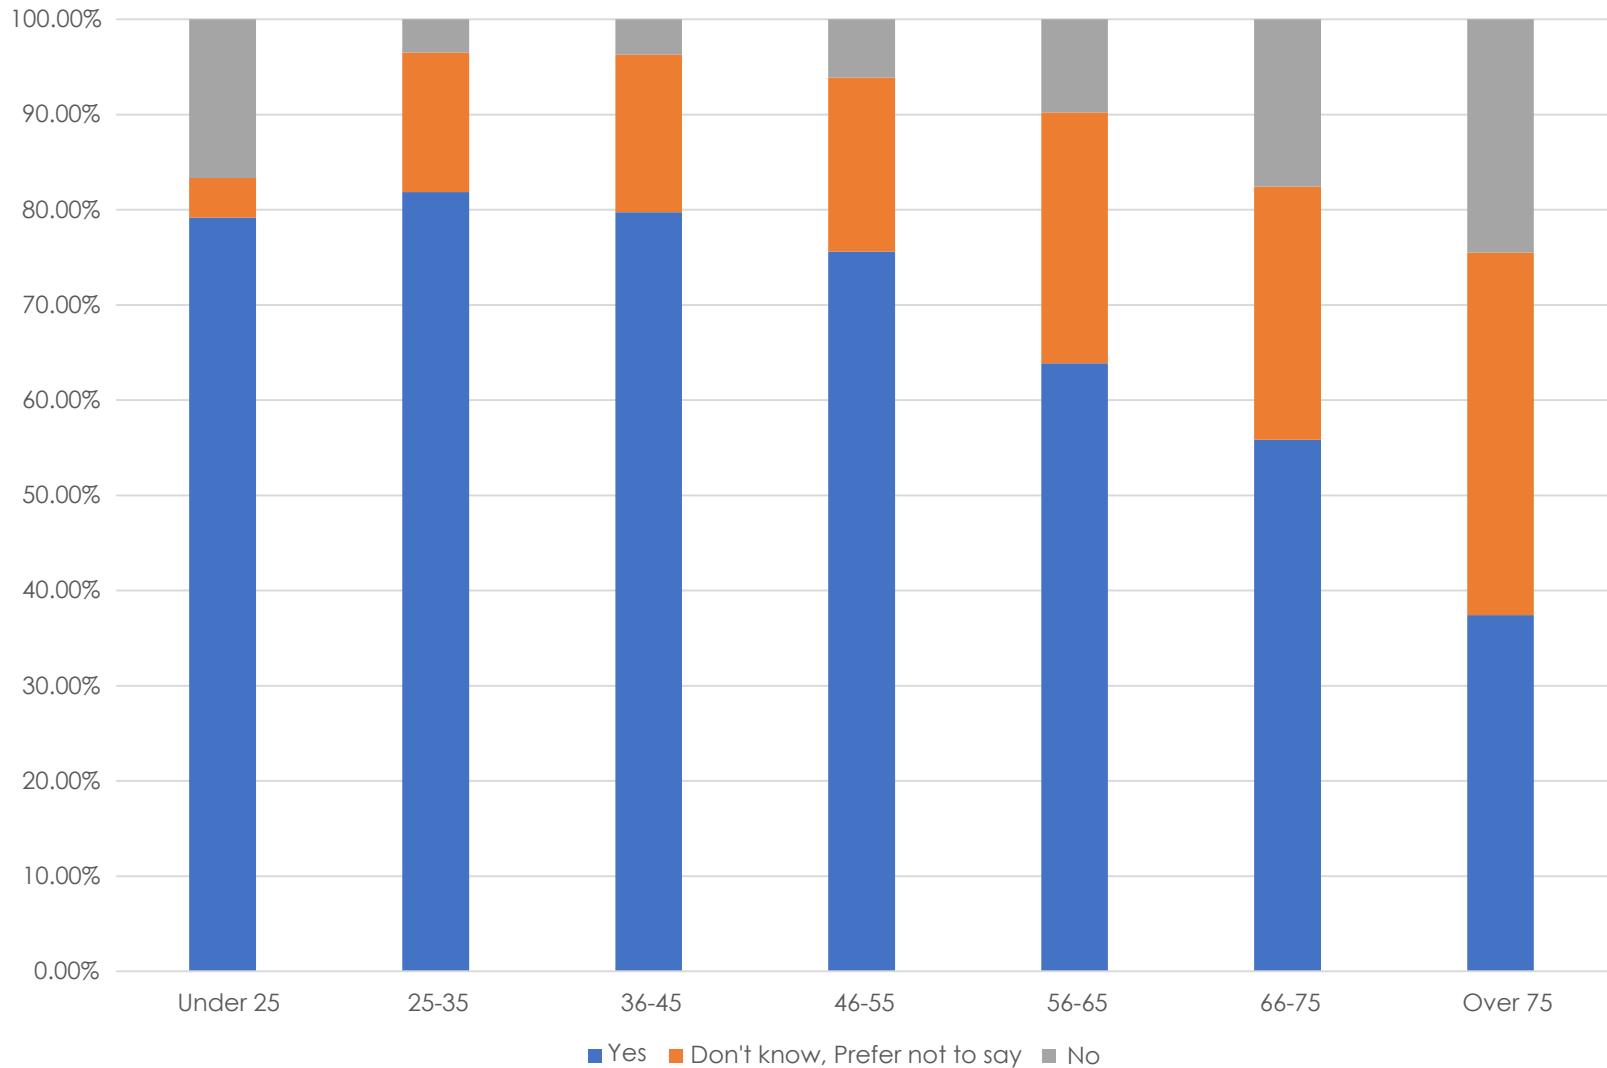

Are you aware that your fund is a recognised leader for investing responsibly?

Do you believe that climate change will present a financial risk to investments in your lifetime?

Do you believe that climate change will present a financial risk to investments in your lifetime?

Do you believe that climate change will present a financial risk to investments in your lifetime?

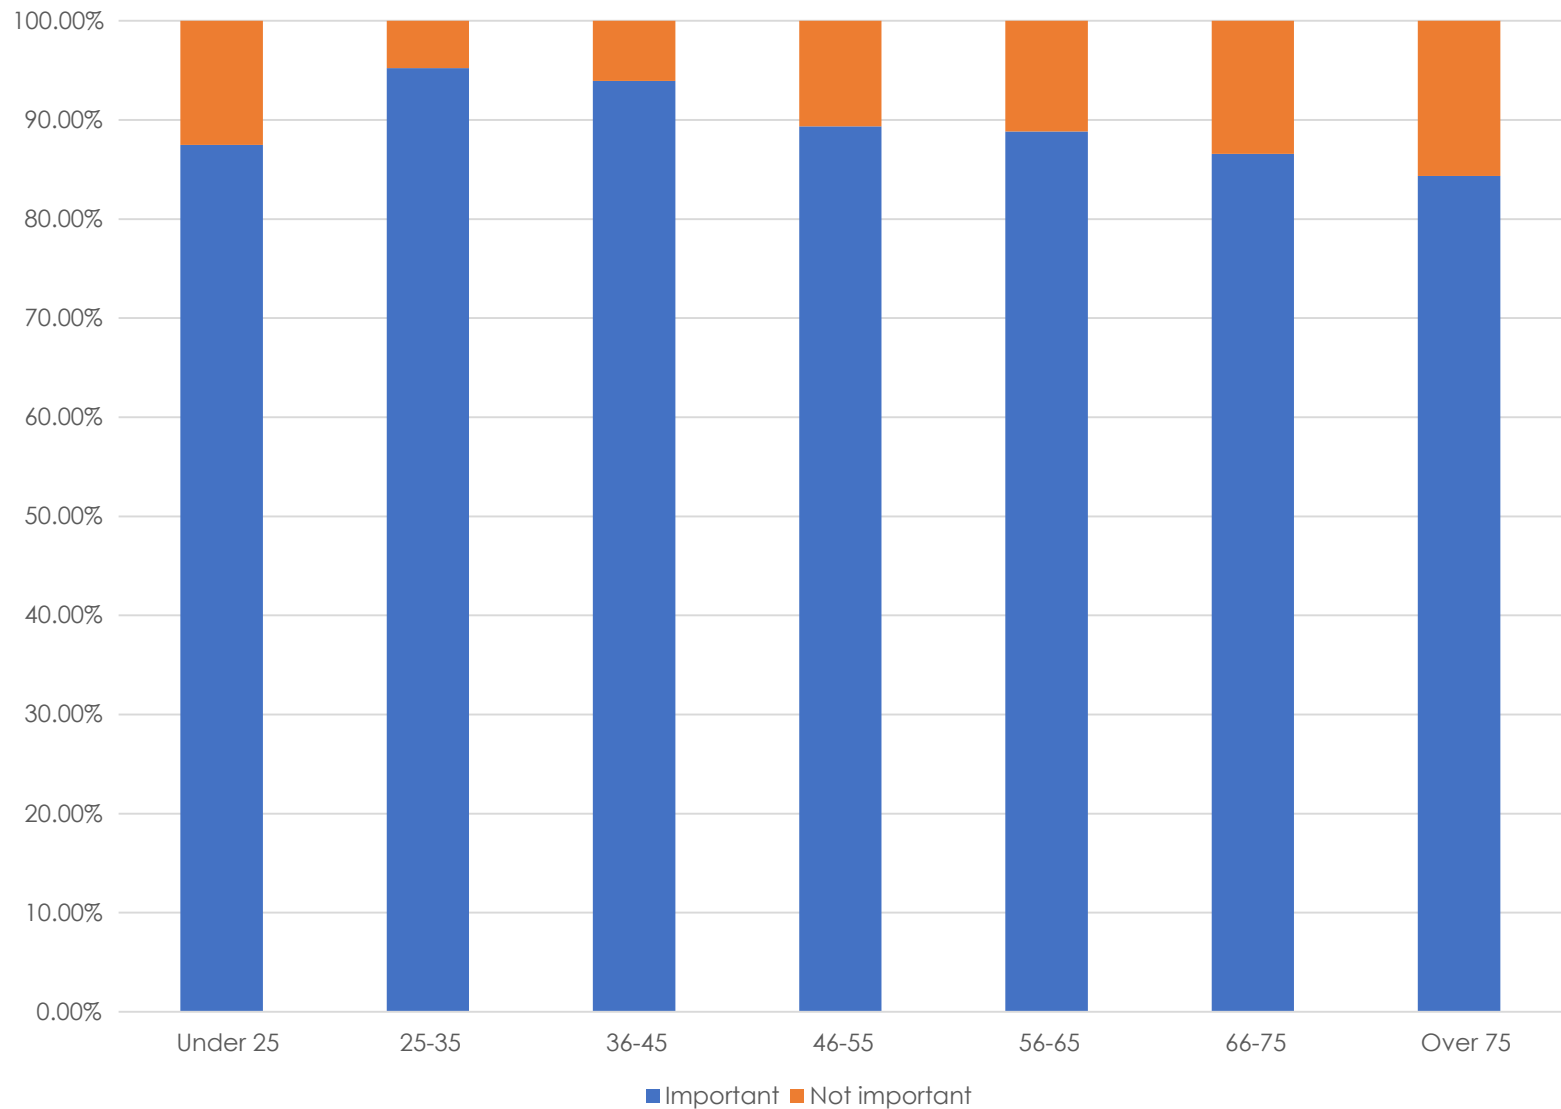

Please rate how important the following questions are to you:

Is it important to you that the EAPF invests in sustainable and low carbon assets?

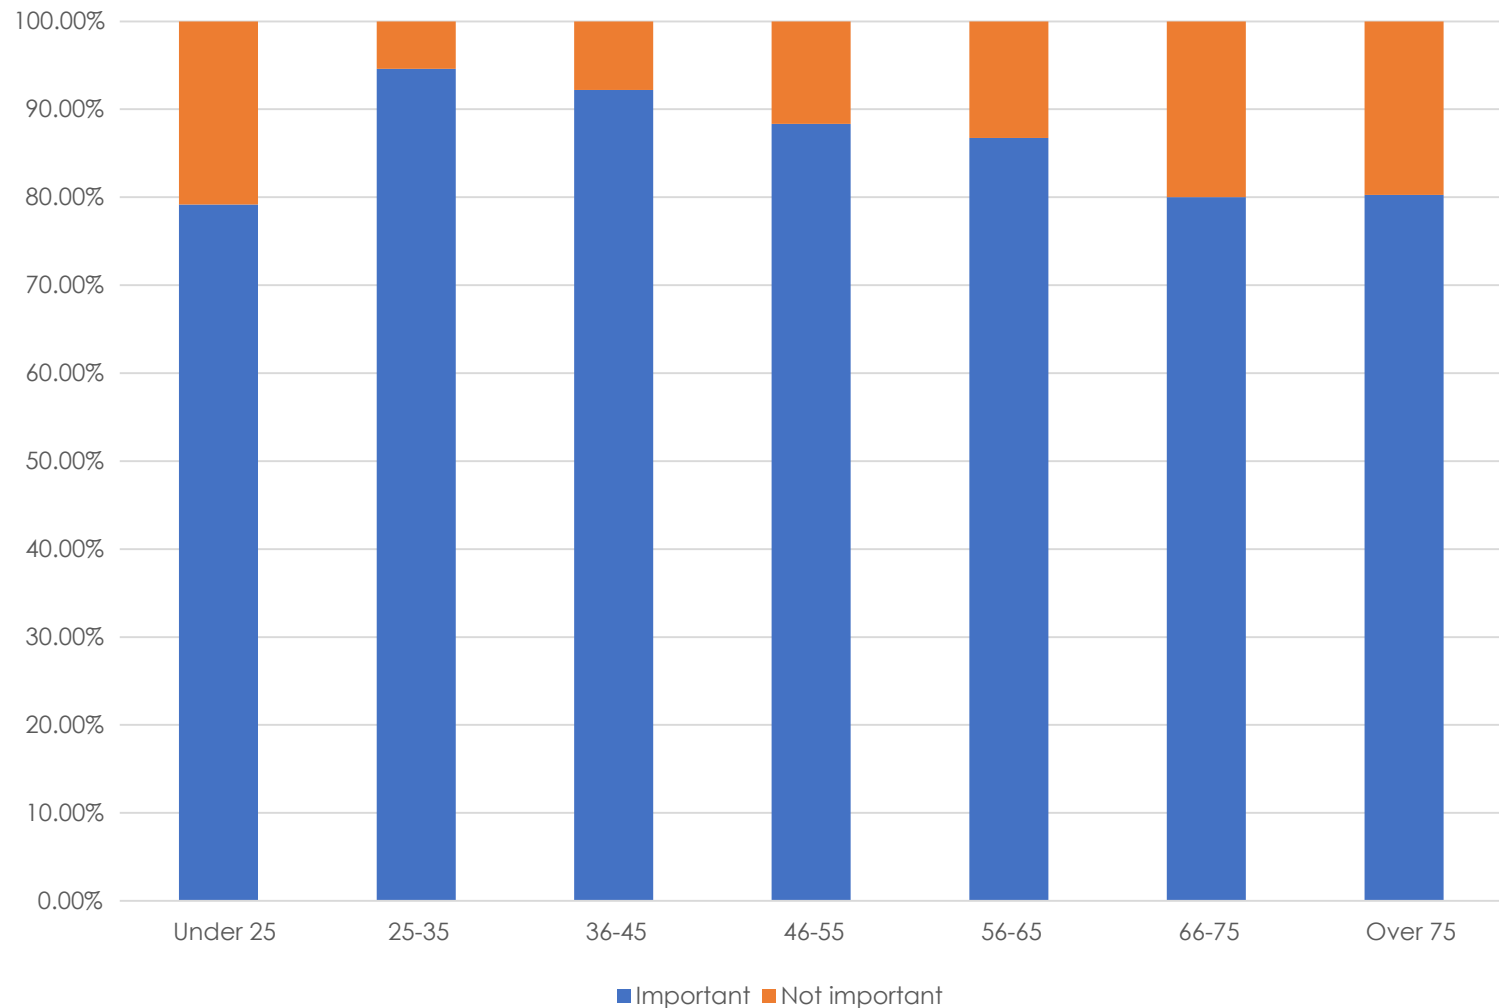

Important includes those who thought it very important, important or quite important.

Is it important to you that the EAPF invests in sustainable and low carbon assets?

Important includes those who thought it very important, important or quite important.

Is it important to you that your Fund seeks to influence the behaviour of the wider financial community to bring about better environmental and social outcomes?

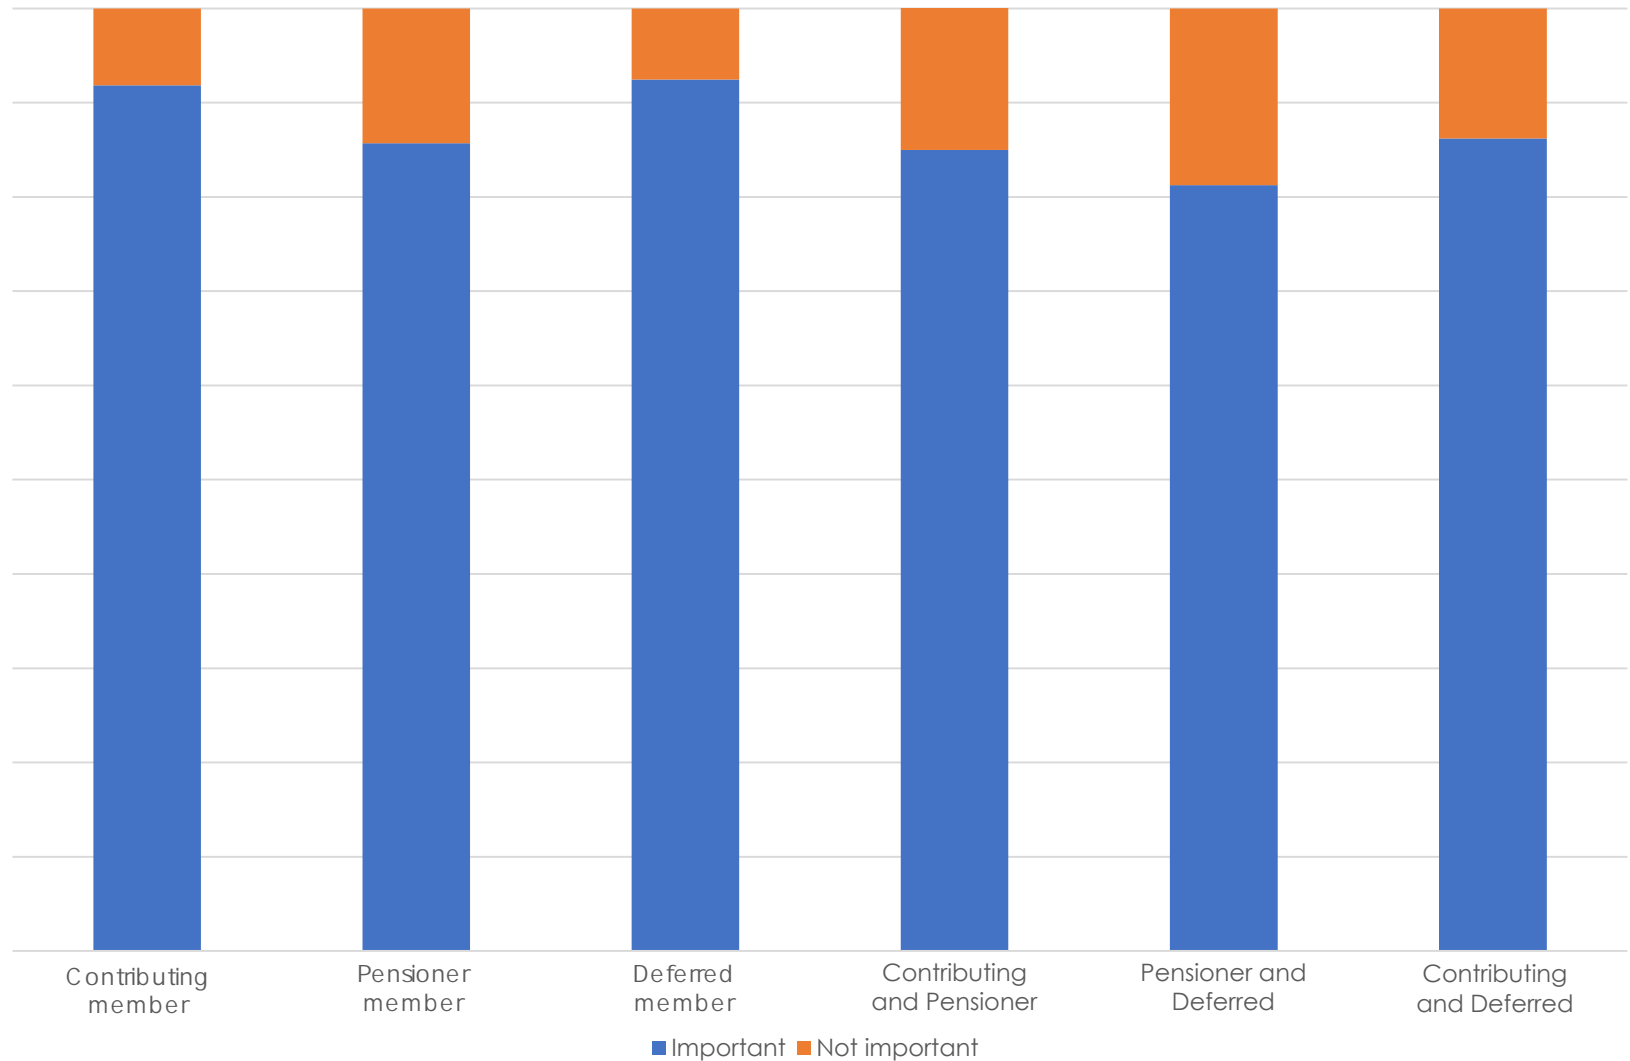

Important includes those who thought it very important, important or quite important.

Is it important to you that your Fund seeks to influence the behaviour of the individual companies in which it invests to bring about better environmental and social outcomes?

Important includes those who thought it very important, important or quite important.

Do you believe the EAPF considers its members' views when deciding how to invest its money?

Which of the following are you aware of?

Have you seen any communications on our Responsible Investment approach?

Where have you seen our responsible investment communications?

Would you like to participate in more RI discussions as part of a focus group?

